

Sida

SWEDISH INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
COOPERATION AGENCY

A low-angle photograph of a woman with dark hair, looking upwards with a slight smile. She is balancing a red and white soccer ball on the tip of her right index finger. The background is a clear, bright blue sky.

Sida works according to directives of the Swedish Parliament and Government

The overall goal of Swedish development cooperation is to: “contribute to making it possible for poor people to improve their living conditions”

Sida's Programme for collaboration with business:
B4D - more impact with less money

Business' role in relation to Sida

Sida & CSR

- The private sector enters the core area of development cooperation through its engagement in CSR
- CSR permeates the B4D work

World Values Survey, Inglehart-Welzel Cultural Map of the World

Development of CSR from business point of view

CSR offers mutual benefits

- Market Development
- Human Rights and Democracy
- Anti corruption
- Eco system services
- Climate risks
- Food security
- Social inclusion

Riktlinjer för Sidas CSR-arbete

1. Skydda
2. Respektera
3. Åtgärda

1. Skydda

- Stärk implementering av lagar & riktlinjer
- Stärk staters efterlevnad och kontrollkapacitet
- Stöd globala initiativ för riktlinjer, standarder och rapportering
- Möjliggör inflytande i standardiseringsprocesser

2. Respektera

- CSR-kriterier i avtal och upphandlingar
- Stödja utvecklingen av hållbara SME
- Samverka med företag för att stärka utvecklingseffekten av deras verksamhet
- Hållbarhetsrapportera enligt GRI

3. Åtgärda

- Konfliktlösningsmekanismer
- NGO:er granskar företagens ansvar
- Fackföreningar främjar arbetsnormer
- Flerpartsdialoger

